BREAKFAST

Yogurt Berry Crunch – (Serves 1, 240 calories)

6 oz. nonfat plain Greek yogurt or low fat plain regular yogurt
½ cup mixed berries (reserve a few for garnish)
2 Tbsp. sliced almonds or chopped walnuts
2 cup raw uncooked oats, certified GF

Spoon yogurt into a bowl and gently mix in berries, then oats. Top with nuts and a few reserved berries. Serve immediately.

Variation: Peach Melba Yogurt Crunch : Use ¼ cup raspberries and ½ ripe peach or nectarine instead of mixed berries.

Nutty Oats – (Serves 3, approximately ¾ cup each, 200 calories)

Steel cut oats are less processed than regular oats and hence need longer cooking. You may wish to soak the oats overnight in almond or soy milk or nonfat milk. That will shorten the usual cooking time down to about 10 minutes. You might also try cooking overnight in a Crockpot on low heat. The nuts can be prepared ahead of time and the fruit diced. Or, you may use whole oats (not the minute oats) that will cook in 5 minutes.

Steel cut oats have a different texture and are somewhat healthier due to less processing! Try this first on a weekend.

2 cups water or milk (1 cup if using regular oats)
½ cup steel cut oats, or 1 cup 5 minute oats, certified GF
Pinch of salt
2 Tbsp slivered or sliced almonds
2 Tbsp. pumpkin seeds
2 Tbsp. sunflower seeds
2 Tbsp. raisins
6 Tbsp. chopped dried unsweetened apricots, apples, or cherries OR fresh blueberries
Cinnamon for garnish
1 tsp. agave nectar (optional)
Nonfat or low fat milk, or unsweetened soy milk or almond milk (optional), or plain yogurt

Bring water to a boil and slowly stir in steel cut oats and salt. When mixture begins to thicken, reduce heat and simmer for about 20 minutes (or 5 minutes if using regular oats), stirring occasionally, until desired consistency. If you have soaked the oats overnight, it will only take about 10 minutes to cook. While oats are cooking, heat a heavy cast iron skillet over low heat and add almonds and seeds. Cook very slowly for about 5-7 minutes, until nuts and seeds are gently toasted. Remove from heat and reserve. Chop dried fruit and reserve.

When oats are cooked to desired consistency, serve topped with 2 Tbsp. mixed nuts and seeds and 2-3 Tbsp. fruit (dried or fresh). Sprinkle with cinnamon and add milk and or agave if desired. Leftover fruit, nuts and even oatmeal can be saved for another morning if you double the recipe. Be sure to refrigerate the oatmeal in an airtight container.

APPETIZERS

Deviled Eggs - (Serves 6 - 2 egg halves per serving, 90 calories)

This is a guilt-free way to eat deviled eggs..... and a perfect food to bring to a potluck! Roasted tomato or pepper hummus is a yummy substitute for mayonnaise in this recipe.

6 large eggs
3-4 Tbsp hummus (plain, roasted tomato, or roasted pepper)
Paprika for garnish

Place 6 large eggs in enough cold water to cover completely, and bring to a rolling boil over high heat. Reduce heat to a simmer and cook, uncovered, for an additional 2 minutes. Remove from heat and cover for 10 minutes. Drain hot water and add cold water to chill so yolks stay bright yellow. Remove shells from eggs and halve lengthwise with a knife. Carefully remove the yolks and place in a medium bowl. Mash yolks with a fork and add your choice of hummus. Very carefully spoon mixture back into the egg white halves. Garnish with a light sprinkling of paprika (optional).

1 cup lightly packed fresh basil leaves
1/4 cup cold-pressed, extra virgin olive oil
2 Tbsp. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. kosher or sea salt

Popcorn Kale - (Serves 4, approximately 2 cups each, 63 calories)

1 bunch kale
1 -1 ½ tbsp olive oil

Put on a cookie sheet and roast at 375 degrees for 5-7min. Gently turn the pieces over and bake for another 5-10 min. > being careful not to burn, but being sure they crisp up. Sprinkle lightly with sea salt and enjoy. The pieces should come out crunchy, so leave them in the oven a little longer if needed.

SOUP

Cauliflower Leek Soup – (Serves 8, approximately ¾ cup each, 84 calories)

2 large leeks (about 1 ½ lbs)
2 Tbsp coconut or olive oil
1 large head cauliflower, divided into large florets
3 cups broth, chicken or vegetable stock, or water
1 cup (8 oz.) plain non-fat Greek style yogurt (gives a creamier taste with the extra calories)
Salt and pepper to taste

Cut the leeks in half, lengthwise, and cut each half into ½ inch thick slices. Rinse well to remove any dirt stuck between the layers. Melt oil in a soup pot, and cook leeks over medium heat, stirring frequently until softened, but now browned. Add cauliflower and broth, stock or water, and bring to a boil. (Using broth or stock gives it a richer flavor. You may not need to use salt so taste carefully before adding salt) Lower heat to a simmer and cook until cauliflower is very soft. Remove from heat and allow to cool slightly. Using a blender or food processor, puree about ½ the soup in batches, and return to soup pot. Stir in yogurt and mix well to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper; reheat and serve. If you like a completely pureed soup, you may blend the entire pot, but it is nice to have some lumpier consistency.

Roasted Winter Squash and Apple Soup (Serves 6, approximately 1 ¼ cups each, 148 calories)

This soup has a rich flavor and is unbelievably delicious, but preparing the butternut squash is a tedious task. For a holiday meal, make this recipe if it is the only dish you have to prepare. It is well-worth it the extra time.

1 large butternut squash, about 2-3 lbs, peeled, seeded, and cut into 1-2 inch pieces
1 large onion, peeled and cut into 6-8 large chunks
3 garlic cloves, peeled
2 tart apples, peeled, quartered, and cored
2 Tbsp olive oil
Mild chili powder
4 cups vegetable or chicken broth

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. In a large roasting pan, combine the squash, apple, onion, garlic, and oil. Season with salt to taste and sprinkle with chili powder to taste. The more chili powder, the more "bite." Roast for 45 minutes, stirring every 10-15 minutes, until veggies are tender and lightly browned. In a food processor, combine half of the roasted veggies with 2 cups broth and puree until smooth. Repeat with the remaining veggies and heat over medium heat in a saucepan, stirring occasionally. Add more broth as needed if soup is too thick. Add more salt and chili powder if needed for more bite.
